

Yes! We're having a bake off to celebrate Macmillan Coffee morning next Friday 28 September at 9am.

This year, each class will have a 'bake off'; baking their cakes at home and bringing them in to be judged:

Sprat & Winkle; Fairy cakes

Redbridge; Cookies

Horsebridge; Flapjacks

Mottisfont; Brownies

Clatford; Scones

Your child can enter the bake off by baking an exciting variety of the cake their class is being entered for. You could go wild and make white chocolate and raspberry blondies in Mottisfont (as a posh version of a brownie) or chocolate and orange cupcakes decorated in hundreds and thousands in Sprat & Winkle. You could make cheese and chive scones in Clatford or opt for something plain but delicious.

Entries need to be submitted before 9am on Friday 28th Sept.

Guest judges will decide on a winner and top 3 from each class and announce the result by 9.30am.

Whilst they're deliberating, please do stay and join us for cakes and coffee as part of the Macmillan Coffee morning.

Whilst your child is baking their entry, we'd really be grateful to receive some 'big' cakes to cut up for adults. Children will be eating the entries after judging but we'd love some 'big' cakes for us adults to consume!

As usual, there is no charge, we just ask for a donation to the Macmillan pot on the day.
